CHLAMYDIA TESTS TO BE HELD IN PUBS AND CLUBS

By Karen Davis

CHLAMYDIA screening events will take place in pubs and clubs across Southend in response to the lack of take-up from young people.

Only around 20 per cent of young adults in Southend have taken advantage of free checks, kits and treatments.

Although chlamydia is the most common sexually transmitted infection, it is usually symptomless.

Left untreated it can lead to infection in the pelvic region or testicles, and infertility.

Carolyn Finlay, screening co-ordinator for NHS South East Essex, said: "Pubs and clubs offer a very relaxed atmosphere for young people.

"They feel they can easily get tested on the spot and because they are out with their friends, they do not fear being judged."

Officials estimate that almost one third (32 per cent) of young people aged 16-24 have had more than five sexual partners.

More than 90 per cent do not get tested before starting a new relationship, even though treatment involves no more than a course of antibiotics.

Testing events will be held at Churchills during their Sunday night sessions from 9.30pm-12am.

The outreach workers, in their 'ruClear?' T-shirts will be armed with chlamydia kits, condoms and other giveaways.

Testing involves men passing a sample into a pot and girls self-swabbing.

NHS South East Essex is urging all young people to accept the offer of a free chlamydia testing kit.

Those who cannot manage to get down to the events, can text the word 'KIT' followed by their name, age and address to 80010.

Texts cost the standard network text rate.

Teen gets first book published

A SOUTHENDE schoolgirl has had her first book published at age 15.

Sofie Hill is a pupil at Shoebury High School and has written the Black Ice trilogy, which follows the story of an ancient prophecy.

'Rain' is the first book of the trilogy and the book was launched at a festival at the school where all the first 60 copies were sold.

Sofie said: "My book is a fantasy fiction novel and is part of my diploma course.

"I first thought of the idea about 18 months ago and it took six months to write."

To find out how to order a copy, search Black Ice Rain on Facebook.

Pool webcam

SOUTHEND residents can keep tabs on the progress of the new Garon Park pool development, thanks to a webcam.

The new device provides regular updates to show how building work on the £13.5m pool is coming along.

The 25-metre, eight-lane pool and dive centre is scheduled to open to the public in late summer. To view the webcam, visit www.southend.gov.uk and key in 'new swimming pool development'.

Trio arrested

A TEENAGER and two men have been arrested in connection with theft of parts from cars in the Southend area.

All three, from Walthamstow, were charged with stealing two Fiesta ST bumpers on March 26, and interfering with a third. A 21-year-old was also charged with driving while disqualified and having no insurance. A 22-year-old and a 16-year-old were bailed to appear before Southend Magistrates on April 7.

Discussion

PRITTLEWELL councillors will be at St Peter's Church on Saturday to discuss a range of topics.

Mike Grimwade, Ric Morgan and Marge Betson will be on hand to answer questions and listen to residents' views on issues such as the airport expansion, the hospital parking scheme and more.

The event takes place from 10am to 12noon at the church in Eastbourne Grove. All are welcome to attend.

REVEALED: An artist's impression of how Southend Airport will look.

Huge loan to help finance plan for Southend Airport

By Matthew Stanton

MORE than £19million has been loaned to the Stobart Group towards improving Southend Airport.

The Bank of London and the Middle East announced it would provide the funds to the airport owners, just days after the Secretary of State agreed runway extension plans.

The 300m runway extension is part of the £35million development of the airport, which was bought by Stobart in December 2008.

The Islamic bank's loan will fund the diversion of Eastwoodbury Crescent and the building of a new £12million rail station.

Ben Whowell, CFO of Stobart Group, said: "We are delighted to partner with the Bank of London and the Middle East for the further development of Southend Airport, enhancing its position in the Eastern Gateway to London."

"We are impressed by the bank's flexibility and client-centred attitude.

"We look forward to seeing the completion of this exciting project that in addition to serving the 2012 Olympics and Paralympics, will have a long-term beneficial impact on local communities."

The bank said its funding would help develop the airport as a distribution gateway as well as open up new European routes to increase passenger numbers from 42,000 to two million by 2020.

Humphrey Percy, the bank's chief executive, said relations with the haulage firm started last year.

He added: "Eddie Stobart is an iconic, well-established UK brand with a strong track record, and represents an ideal candidate for our corporate banking services, both now and in the future."

"The core objectives of Stobart group correspond with the principles of the bank – transparency, partnership and service."

"Stobart is growing and expanding, and the bank is looking for innovative market leaders such as the Stobart Group to develop with."

Mums boogie for their bosoms

By Matthew Stanton

ASHINGDON mothers have formed a committee to raise money for a Southend Hospital campaign.

The group of six, led by Sophie Benson, have organised a series for fundraiser for the Bosom Pals Appeal.

The 37-year-old started the project after hearing that five mothers at the same school had been diagnosed over the past two years - and one lost her battle with the disease.

Former school nurse turned beauty therapist, Sophie, said: "I'd seen two mums last year wearing bandanas and then I realised we were talking about five mums from the same school."

"We are just mums but we have to do something. We've been meeting every week since January to plan events."

"We've all got daughters and we all want to know they stand a chance."

The first fundraiser took place on Saturday when the group and Hawkwell fire crews washed cars outside Ashingdon School.

The women pinned their old bras to a banner in the playground to raise awareness.

The next event - called 'Boogie for your Bosoms' - will take place tonight (Thursday) at Cupids Country Club, in Cupids Close, Great Wakering, from 7.30pm to midnight.

The dress code is strictly pink, there will be a charity auction hosted by BBC Essex morning presenter Dave Monk, with signed memorabilia from Brentwood songstress Pixie Lott.

There will also be a disco, buffet, raffle and live music - with tickets priced at £15.

Money raised will go towards a £750,000 for state-of-the-art digital equipment for better and earlier detection of cancers.

For more information about the events, or to help the mums with their appeal, call 07816 530582.

MY STORY: Lorraine Macgregor

Lorraine Macgregor was diagnosed with breast cancer while playing with her eight-year-old daughter, Chelsea, in the bath.

The youngster squirted some bath gel at her breast in 2007 and when Lorraine wiped it off, a lump was discovered.

The 39-year-old, who was pregnant at the time, saw her GP, who referred her for tests within two days. They came back positive.

The mother-of-two's cancer was fuelled by the hormone oestrogen, which rises in pregnancy, and oncology doctors wanted the baby induced so they could begin treatment.

This involved removal of the lump followed by chemotherapy and radiotherapy.

However, at 26 weeks' pregnant, this idea was met with resistance and it was agreed that Lorraine would have the lumpectomy while still pregnant and then wait six more weeks before she was induced.

Lorraine said: "I knew it had to be done quickly because they'd already told me if it had been discovered much later, I wouldn't have seen the next Christmas. It was a horrendous time.

"Chelsea felt so guilty because she'd been the one who had found the lump and because she was only eight, she thought if she hadn't found it, it would have gone away."

The housewife had the operation in December 2007 and found the cancer had spread to six of her lymph nodes.

Just a month later, baby Teigan was born following a Caesarean section.

The youngster weighed just 4lbs 13oz and was placed in special care straight away. When the newborn returned home, Lorraine began six months of chemotherapy, followed by four-and-a-half weeks of radiotherapy.

The campaigner is now making a recovery and has twice-yearly check-ups. She is in her second year of remission and is taking Tamoxifen.

Sponsor a mural at new college for the disabled

By Matthew Stanton

AN ESSEX charity is looking for businesses to sponsor murals at its new Rochford base.

Disability Essex has hired two local artists to design and paint 18 rooms at its £2million eco-friendly college, in Rocheway.

All firms sponsoring the rooms at the college will have their name engraved in the plans.

Richard Boyd, chief executive of Disability Essex, said: "We wanted the facility to look lively, warm and comfortable, that's why we approached these artists.

"I have seen the quality of their designs and I am very excited. All we need now is sponsors."

The new Centre for Disability Studies is on the verge of completion and will offer training and advice for disabled people.

The project, partly funded by the East of England Development Agency and with cash from a huge fundraising campaign, was launched in January 2004.

For more call Disability Essex on 0844 412 1771.

Get ready for the Southend Shakedown

By Karen Davis

THOUSANDS of motorcyclists will raise funds for the NSPCC by taking part in Ace Cafe London's 12th Annual Southend Shakedown on Easter Monday (April 5).

The event has become an Easter Bank Holiday institution, with bikers travelling from the Ace Cafe, around the North Circular then up to Southend via the A12 for a day of fun in the seaside town.

Ace Cafe London's managing director, Mark Wilsmore, said: "Being held at Easter with its tradition of giving, the cafe's annual Southend Shakedown always includes a charity aspect focusing on children. This year, Ace Cafe London is supporting the NSPCC and we hope that you will too."

All money raised at this year's event will go towards the charity's

Child's Voice Appeal, which aims to develop the ChildLine and adult helpline services.

Keen biker Bartholemew Simpson will be taking part in the Shakedown for the third time.

He said: "The Shakedown is a fantastic day out and the participants put on quite a spectacle.

"It's great to raise some cash for a good cause and meet up with like-minded people."

RECOGNISED: A Hawkwell firefighter with two of the children taking part in Firebreak.

Award for Essex Firebreak project

By Matthew Stanton

AN ESSEX fire project has scooped a national award.

Essex Fire and Rescue Service was named runner up in the 'Fire Service Equality and Diversity Awards' for its work with Down's Syndrome youngsters.

The team held the country's first ever Firebreak scheme for teenagers with the condition.

A group of 12 youngsters from across Essex and East London took part in the four-day course at Hawkwell Fire Station, which was organised in conjunction with charity Down's Syndrome Extra 21.

Donna Finch, youth progression manager, said: "It is great to receive national recognition like this for the scheme.

"The entire team deserve credit - instructors used holdays and gave up their own time to run the course."

The Firebreak course taught the youngsters some of the skills and disciplines needed to become a firefighter.

The aim was to assist in improving the youngsters' communication skills and to show them how to work in teams and problem solve along the way, giving them new confidence and motivation.

Parents get creative for school

By Karen Davis

THE PARENTS of pupils at Westborough School got together with arts group Community Mosaics East (CME) to create a colourful mosaic.

The Government-funded mosaic project was aimed at adults using Summercourt Children's Centre at Milton Hall School.

The two-part project, called 'Piece Together' was funded as part of the £20million UK-wide Transformation Fund initiative.

During part one, the parents of Westborough pupils were taught mosaic skills by the local mosaic artists Mara Chrystie, Marie Wray and Nicola Upton.

The Westborough parents then joined their teachers to help 'pass on' the skills they had learned to the Summercourt clients during the second phase of workshops.

Individual mosaics were created by all the participants, ranging from lizards and fish to more abstract shapes.

The project follows successful schemes recently run by CME in Southend with organisations such as the Storehouse, Turning Tides and Re-think.

The Government's £20m Transformation Fund to support informal adult learning - learning for pleasure, self-development and community development - awarded money to a wide range of projects, all with the objective of seeing creative learning flourish across the country.

The projects introduce a range of innovative adult learning initiatives for the benefit of a wide range of communities and individuals.

Warnings given on counterfeit tobacco

By Karen Davis

PEOPLE in Essex are being warned by HM Revenue & Customs (HMRC) to be on the lookout for traders selling counterfeit and smuggled cigarettes as the car boot season gets underway.

Low cost tobacco products can often seem like an attractive offer, however, these sales are unlicensed and unregulated.

Sellers are not concerned if they are selling to children or young people and in addition, with expertly crafted packaging, it is almost impossible to spot whether the cigarettes are counterfeit.

Keith Morgan, specialist investigation detection manager for HMRC, said: "With an estimated £2 billion in revenue being drained from the public purse each year by tobacco smugglers alone, the problem of excise fraud is a real one, which we are determined to crack. This is not an innocent or victimless crime, but one that encourages otherwise honest people to trade with criminals.

"We have active and effective teams of officers operating across Essex to disrupt this illicit trade which has a devastating impact on legitimate retailers having to compete against these black market traders."

The gangs behind this form of criminality reap huge profits from cigarette sales which are ploughed straight back into the criminal underworld, feeding activities like drug dealing and fraud.

"We are keen to work closely with local people and communities in the fight against this type of crime."

If you know of anyone selling cheap or duty free cigarettes and tobacco, contact the Customs hotline on 0800 59 5000 or e-mail customs.hotline@hmrc.gsi.gov.uk

Landlord prosecuted

A LANDLORD has been prosecuted after leaving his tenants for ten months with no heating, hot water or downstairs lighting.

John Squires, of South Crescent, Southend, was fined £2,000 by Southend Magistrates and ordered to pay £1,010 costs and a £15 victim surcharge.

This followed after Squire admitted failure to repair a defective heating and water system in his property at Dolphins, Westcliff.

The hot water cylinder had leaked through the ground floor hall light, while the boiler had a defective flue and no record of gas safety.

His tenants were left without access to heating, hot water, and without lighting to the downstairs area of the house since May last year.

Southend Council's Private Sector Housing Team brought the prosecution.

Although the landlord pleaded guilty at the hearing on Monday, March 1, he must also still abide by an improvement notice requiring him to complete the works.

Park gets new friends group

By Matthew Stanton

A GROUP has been set up to deal with issues at an expanding 100-acre park in Rochford.

'Friends of Cherry Orchard Jubilee Country Park' was established following a public meeting in Edwards Hall Primary School, Macmurdo Road, Eastwood, on Thursday.

Group member, Brian Hutchinson, said: "The council planted hundreds of trees in the park to improve the site, but they placed some on a bridleway and people weren't happy about that, so I called the council to let them know. That phonecall put the wheels in motion to set up this group and I believe we can work in partnership together."

Rochford District Council helped to form the party following the success of 'Friends of Sweeny Park'.

Since they were established two months ago, the following changes have been made.

- The installation of additional bins.
- Improvements to access.
- Advice to dog owners about responsible dog ownership.
- The establishment of family nature walks.

■ A quarterly newsletter with news and information about the park is being formed.

Councillor Michael Starke (Con, Hawkwell West), the council's portfolio holder for the environment, said: "Friends of groups are invaluable to the council."

"They give us a real idea of what's needed in the local parks and open spaces from a resident's point of view."

To become a 'friend' of your local park, call Heather Meggison on 01702 318057.

PLEASED: Reece Burgess with his award.

THE JACK PETCHY FOUNDATION

Outstanding student Reece wins accolade

A THUNDERSLEY student has received an 'outstanding achiever' award after overcoming dyslexia.

SEEVIC College apprentice, Reece Burgess, was handed the certification by the Jack Petchey Foundation.

The 20-year-old, who is studying exercise and fitness, said: "I was so surprised to win the award. I have never won anything like this before."

"It's great to feel like I have really achieved something."

The former warehouse worker, who also won £200, was nominated by his tutors and classmates after putting in extra time studying.

Tutor, James Smith, said: "Awards like the Jack Petchey Award are a great way to encourage students to achieve more and overcome challenges."

Reece was chosen to receive the award because of the hard work he has put in, and continues to put in, to help him achieve his goals."

ILLEGAL: The Canvey depot where the fuel was found.

Illegal fuel seized at haulage depot

By Matthew Stanton

MORE than 3,700 litres of illegal fuel has been removed from a haulage depot on Canvey.

HM Revenue & Customs (HMRC) officers have made no arrests but investigations are ongoing into the seizures.

Fuel found on the site will be destroyed by a Government contractor.

Mark Allison, inland detection manager, warned that testing methods are 'greater than ever', meaning those using illegal fuel have an increased chance of getting caught.

He said: "Using rebated or illicit fuel can seem like an attractive proposition for drivers.

"However, those who continue to do so are abusing a tax system that is there to support and reduce the burden on industries such as agriculture.

"It's about cheating honest citizens out of vital funding for public services."

The seizure, last week, was part of a crackdown across Essex.

In an Epping garage, 3,700 litres of illegal fuel was removed. Meanwhile, an industrial estate in Harlow had over 8,500 litres of fuel taken and the haulier had a vehicle seized and was fined £750 in penalties before it was restored.

A vehicle tested on the A12, in Essex, was found to be using illegal fuel and the driver had to pay £625 in fines before he was able to take his vehicle away.

In total, the duty evaded was estimated at £8,000.

Anyone with information on fuel fraud should contact 0800 59 5000 or e-mail customs.confidential@hmrc.gsi.gov.uk

Illegal Fuel Types

- Red diesel - is marked gas oil or a rebated fuel for use in agricultural machinery and not for use in road vehicles.

- Heating Oil - is a type of Kerosene which is similar in colour to Derv - another rebated diesel fuel not for use in road vehicles. This is illegally added to Derv.

- Laundered fuel - is red diesel, which has been filtered through chemicals or acids to remove the Government marker. Chemicals and acids added to red diesel remain in the fuel and damage fuel pumps in diesel cars.

Agreement extended

AN ESTATE agent has extended the use of its premises to help Hockley police.

Partners in Wells Legal Solicitors and Wells Legal Homes, in Spa Road, have allowed beat officers to use the site.

PC Steve Joynes, PCSO Laura Merrell, PCSO John Venner and Jeff Stanton, chairman of Hockley Resident's Association, took part in a hand over ceremony.

Senior partner, Andrew Wells, said: "We welcome this strategy alongside our other community initiatives such as school visits, free seminars and legal surgeries.

"Other local residents and traders should benefit, along with us, with the security that comes from the enhanced police presence."

Opinion and readers' letters

A sad day in Southend's history

SATURDAY, March 20, will go down as a very sad day in Southend's history.

I refer to the tree felling in Priory Crescent of which, as a resident, I had the misfortune to witness first-hand.

I was woken at 4am by some noise in the street and upon investigation I discovered security staff lined up along the length of the road, one guarding each tree.

By 4.30am the road had been closed off at either end and heavy machinery had begun to arrive.

It was at 4.30am that I received my hand delivered letter telling me what would be happening that day (thanks for the notice!).

On venturing out at 6am I was met at the end of my drive by one of these guards who informed me that I would have to be escorted if I wanted to move along, exit or re-enter the street. It was all quite surreal and not unlike a scene from a military operation or siege situation.

I could then do no more than stand peacefully with other like-minded people and register my disapproval and opposition.

I was heartened by the support of the vast majority of drivers who passed, but disgusted by the attitude and behaviour of the guards, who clapped and cheered as each tree was felled.

My real sadness though, was realising that my council are so arrogant that they have no desire to listen to the people who elect them. Roll on the council elections in May when I pray that the people of Southend will even the score and rid the town of the likes of Councillor Anna Waite and her cronies.

Mitch Easterford
Priory Crescent, Prittlewell

We must take back our town

I SUPPORTED Camp Cuckoo from day one and despite the impression that the council tried to give, most of us had full-time jobs, families and other 'normal' commitments.

Although we have been derided by Anna Waite, I am proud of us and what we achieved and although the camp is no more, the sense of community spirit, friendship and optimism which we built up in such a short space of time will continue.

People of all ages and backgrounds came together with the common goal to stop Anna Waite and her 'select few' rippling out yet more of our irreplaceable mature trees and it was a fantastic experience, albeit one ending in tragedy.

Our council cabinet doesn't like people finding a voice and standing up to them, which is why they came down so hard on a handful of decent people and attempted to financially ruin them at the High Court.

Those named on the court papers are still waiting to find out how many thousands of pounds they will each have to 'pay' for daring to defy the Southend dictatorship.

The council's clear warning to The Little People is 'Don't mess with Big Brother' and after the events of the last week, I have certainly realised that the democracy and freedom which I previously took for granted does not exist.

I was assured that Councillor Waite would meet with me and other residents before the felling took place, yet in the week leading up to the destruction, my five e-mails to arrange the meeting (which were all copied to Councillor Waite) were totally ignored.

When I finally phoned the council on Friday afternoon, I was told that it was too late and listened in amazement as they tried to tell me that it was somehow MY fault that the meeting had not taken place!

Anna Waite stated on television that there is a time and a place for protests, but in reality there is NO time or place for protests because Anna Waite wields all the power in this town and will do whatever it takes to get her own way.

Public consultations are a farce, a waste of our time and money and an insult to our intelligence.

I will never forget the horror of seeing those beautiful trees being butchered by council yobs, whilst being subjected to jeers and insults by tree fellers, the security guards and High Court bailiffs, in a blatant attempt to incite trouble.

They even put one of them on our side of the fence who told us that he was there to wind us up and he took great delight in insulting women and children and making them cry.

Saturday was one of the worst days of my life and since then I have struggled with feelings of hopelessness, anger and despair that we are being controlled by a bunch of people with no heart or soul.

We need to take back our town which, despite the spin about 'democracy', will not be easy and will not be quick.

We need to smash the cabinet of eight who are making all the decisions and we need to start now.

The local election is in May and it is my hope that the people of Southend will look around them and see for themselves what the Tory Cabinet has done, and is continuing to do, and vote to get them out.

We can't turn the clock back and we can't un-break the damage that has been done to our town, but we can continue the work started by Camp Cuckoo in bringing the community together and we CAN stand up for ourselves to restore common sense and stamp out this madness.

Leigh-on-Sea dream is over

NOW that the airport expansion has been allowed by the mainly Conservative council, led by a certain Councillor Nigel Holdcroft, do the residents of Leigh-on-Sea realise that in a short time their 'quiet' lives will never be the same again?

The reality is there are going to be low level jets 'screaming' over our heads after taking off from Southend airport every 15 minutes of every day and commencing from 6.30am up to 11am at night.

Leigh-on-Sea is immediately under the flight path.

You will no longer be able to sit in your back gardens in the summer in peace and quiet and forget keeping your windows open as the noise and fumes will be wafting through from the jets mainly carrying freight for the Stobart group or cheap flight passengers to Spain etc. It is hoped there will be two million of them.

The roads will be clogged up with all this lot travelling to and from the airport in their cars and no plan has been thought of how to cope with that.

The plans have been rushed through by all concerned so that certain members of the Stobart group can get their bonuses for completing on time and supposedly in the name of creating a few jobs for the area - and damn the thousands of elderly and mainly retired residents who came to Leigh for peace and quiet!

Enjoy this summer in Leigh - it will be your last before things really take off.

I was at one of the local meetings - it was a done deal and the residents had no chance.

Leigh-on-Sea will probably be renamed 'Stobarts-on-Air'. Oh and by the way, the council might give you some compensation in a year or two for your property being devalued (that's if anyone will want to buy it) and offer sound protection.

Building this airport extension in this heavily built-up area is complete madness and beyond logic.

So thank you for nothing Mr Alistair Welch (airport manager), Stobarts and the Conservative councillors - I am sure that as we batten down the hatches soon we will have the knowledge that the jet flying overhead has somehow helped the British Economy and brought regeneration to a few of the jobless of Southend, courtesy of a few elected councillors.

If you are unhappy, you must complain about this to Southend Council in the first instance and then John Denham MP - both main instigators of the people destroying the Leigh-on-Sea way of a tranquil life.

Mr T Knightley
Address supplied

Listen up, Labour

WITH the Conservative lead in the polls falling to four per cent over Labour, despite the best efforts of the Murdoch media empire to persuade the turkeys to vote for Christmas, the Saatchi brothers have been called in to co-ordinate a negative advertising campaign against Gordon Brown in the hope that they can work the oracle for David Cameron as they did for Margaret Thatcher.

Moreover, with such a low opposition lead at this time in the electoral cycle, a hung parliament appears to be on the cards and the Liberal Democrats a sure bet to be the 'King Makers'.

And with Lib Dem parliamentary candidates of the stature of Graham Longley and Peter Welch in Southend East and West respectively, surely even disillusioned Labour supporters should see the merits of voting tactically with the aim of reforming an electoral system that has fostered such safe Tory seats as Southend forever and a day ad nauseum and infinitum.

The roads will be clogged up with all this lot travelling to and from the airport in their cars and no plan has been thought of how to cope with that.

The fringe parties will make much hay fishing for those currently flapping about in search of a political home, but they are just a distraction splitting the protest vote while the Lib Dems can be seen as the logical driving force giving proper voice to their protest via the proportional representation they seek.

If they truly want it listened to, that is.

We must back wind farms now

GARY Tempest (YA Letters, Mar 10) makes a series of inaccurate claims relating to wind farms and fails to address the concerns of those opposed to nuclear power.

There is no escaping the fact that Japan and France have been forced to regularly close nuclear plants due to the inability to cool stations during heatwaves. This is something we must fear ever more in the future.

Added to this is the refusal of nuclear supporters to address the national security issues surrounding nuclear power.

If the world moves to nuclear power as an energy source, there will be thousands of potential nuclear targets for terrorists to exploit and every nation on earth will gain the technology to make nuclear bombs.

All the arguments against wind power were tackled on the excellent local residents group website: www.wewantawindfarm.org.uk.

In reality, wind power works superbly well alongside gas power turbines. When the wind blows we burn less gas and, on those extremely rare occasions, when there is no breeze, we burn more gas. But overall, having wind power makes the UK less dependent upon imported gas supplies and less susceptible to blackmail by exporters.

But the future for UK manufactured wind power could be very bright indeed. Two British firms are currently preparing for trials of a 15 MW wind turbine in the North East.

The UK would need just 70 of these machines to match the output of one nuclear power station. Better still the potential export market is enormous.

If we are to reduce carbon dioxide emissions, reduce our dependence upon foreign gas, oil and coal supplies and become more self-sufficient as a nation, wind farms are the way forward.

But if we want to see the creation of tens of thousands of new jobs in the wind farm industry we must all give our backing and give it now.

Fundraiser to take on Mount Everest

By Matthew Stanton

A BENFLEET fundraiser who overcame anorexia will attempt to climb the world's highest mountain.

Laura Peters, of Woodham Park Drive, will attempt to scale Mount Everest on Thursday, April 8, to raise money for Cancer Research and Fairhaven Hospice.

At the age of 26, Laura's weight plummeted to just four stone and she was hospitalised at St Anne's Hospital in Tottenham.

During her treatment, Laura's heart was struggling and she was told it was possible she could die. She has now fully recovered, although she has been left with osteoarthritis in her knees and ankles.

The 30-year-old, who has travelled to 48 different countries, said: "Now is the time for my months of training to pay off. I am certain it will not only be tough physically, but also mentally."

"As long as my legs will walk and I can stand up, I will move toward the camp. I am positive that I will reach base with a smile."

The Mount Everest challenge will see the former Appleton School pupil aim to reach base camp 5,600 metres up the mountain's slope.

Laura has arranged the tour and flights independently, so there will be just herself and a Nepalese guide on the hike.

Anyone looking to donate can e-mail laurainaus@hotmail.com or visit www.justgiving.com/laura-peters TREK: Globetrotter Laura Peters will walk to base camp in Tibet.

HAYLEY Richards is heading for an adventure of a lifetime.

She plans to trek along ancient and remote sections of the Great Wall of China, walking around seven hours a day across the Yanshan mountains.

Hayley will cover many miles including several steep climbs and the fabled 300 'Steps to Heaven', cut into the mountainside.

Along the way, she will get a glimpse of Chinese life - and as an added incentive she will be raising money for one of her favourite charities, Macmillan.

"I really admire the work Macmillan does, it is a worthy cause to walk for," said Hayley, who works for the Basildon

Probation Service. "The charity does so much to help cancer sufferers and their families."

"I am also looking forward to trekking through such an interesting and beautiful part of the world."

As well as training for the trek, Hayley has been busy fundraising - she has to find at least £2,000 in sponsorship and intends to pay all her own expenses on top.

Hayley will be leaving for Beijing on April 24 and returns May 4.

Anyone who would like to contribute to her charity effort can do so at www.justgiving.com/Hayley-Richards

DREAM DOORS®

"How I Transformed My Kitchen Without Having To Buy a New One!"

"I would recommend Dream Doors every time"

"My kitchen was over 10 years old and looked tatty. I desperately needed a new kitchen but couldn't afford the cost or upheaval. I had heard good reports of Dream Doors, who specialise in kitchen facelifts, so I decided to give them a try. What a result!

As well as fitting brand new doors and worktops, everything was colour co-ordinated and I even gained additional cupboard space. My kitchen has been transformed in just over a day and I have saved 60% of the cost of a new one!

I was under no obligation from the initial visit, and the advice and estimate I received were free of charge. There was no mess, no fuss, just plenty of friendly, helpful advice and I didn't need to pay the balance until I was completely satisfied!"

MAITREYA STEPS FORWARD

His open mission has begun. The way prepared by his herald the "Star" Maitreya, The World Teacher, has given 8 interviews on American television. Millions have heard him speak on TV and the Internet. He was introduced not as Maitreya, The World Teacher and head of spiritual hierarchy, but simply as a man, one of us. In this way he "ensures that men follow and support him for the truth and sanity of his ideas rather than for his status". He spoke earnestly of the need for peace, achieved only through their creation of Justice and sharing of their world's resources such interviews which will be given in the USA, Japan, Europe and elsewhere, bringing his message of hope to the world.

Bangkok takes your breath away

By Sarah O'Meara

UNLIKE Prague, Berlin and Paris, the capital city of Thailand – Bangkok – hasn't yet made it into the city break hall of fame.

However, as airlines cut long-haul fares to beat the recession, more travellers are likely to find themselves stopping off there.

Having planned a trip to Sydney, I decided to book a four-night stop-over in Bangkok to see if there is more to this city than access to its country's beaches. Fresh off our direct Thai Airways flight from London, my boyfriend and I feared at first that we had made a bad decision.

As we sped towards the city, dirty looking concrete skyscrapers emerged from the polluted air, filling the skyline with ugly concrete, and us with slight horror.

But once we'd got to the hotel and had a shower, we stared out of our hotel room at the view with a genuine sense of excited, nervous anticipation.

We'd wisely chosen a hotel that offered respite from the city's hub-bub, the newly opened President Place Hotel in the business area of Sukhumvit.

Within easy reach of the main markets and historic centre of Bangkok, it still manages to provide luxuriously big rooms, free wi-fi and a swimming pool – all from 4,000 baht (£76) per night.

Before hitting the sights, including the Royal Palace, we needed to pay our respects to one of its great cultural landmarks – Chatuchak market.

Open every weekend, this 5,000-plus stall affair is well known among travellers as the only place to go for incredible bargains and a once-in-a-lifetime shopping experience.

There's not much haggling to be done at Chatuchak, as the stall owners are hip to our jive, but goods should always be half to a third of the price of similar products in the UK.

As the second most expensive city in southeast Asia behind Singapore, it can be easy to feel a little small in Bangkok. Edifices built with the profits of high finance soar up around you, filled with luxurious restaurants and extraordinary views.

It's easy for those with just a few baht in their pocket to wander straight past, but don't miss out on this side of the city just because you've got into the habit of spending £1 on lunch.

Find your hotel's shower, a hairbrush, and head to the bar at the top of one of the hotels. These are open to everyone and are the most perfect setting for a cocktail that man has ever invented.

After a day negotiating the heat and shopping until you drop, there's only one way to unwind – with a massage.

Whether you choose a road-side foot massage, a curtained sanctuary in the back room of a beauty salon, or a top hotel, you'll never be short of options, and the standard will remain wonderfully high.

Of all the five-star hotels which overlook the river Chao Phraya Rivernone at the heart of the city, none sum up the feelings of old-school elegance quite like this 130-year-old hotel, which has seen Joseph Conrad and Ernest Hemingway walk through its doors.

After two full body massages, followed by a herbal steam and scrub, we left the grandeur of the hotel's spa and hopped onto its private boat, which took us back across the river for dinner.

There are definitely worse ways to spend an evening.

TRAVEL FACTS

SARAH flew with Thai Airways, which currently offers Bangkok return fares ex-Heathrow from £509 (two travelling), which also includes return domestic flights within Thailand to one of 12 destinations. Offer applies for travel until June 30 if booked by March 31.

Connecting BMI flights ex-Manchester start at £116, ex-Glasgow from £120.

Redtrack making waves

by Jenny Green

THE last year has been like a dream come true for Redtrack. Not only have the Southend trio just got a new album deal, but they've appeared on TV, toured the country and won several awards.

For lead singer Billy Wright, who founded the band in 2006, it's all in a day's work.

"Things are going really well, it's fun," he says.

"At the moment, we're just trying to raise our profile before our new single comes in May and the album's out in August.

"We're just trying to do lots of gigs and having a good time."

The fact Redtrack are playing at all is rather an impressive feat. The day before the band were due to record their debut EP, in 2007, guitarist Phil was attacked by two machete-wielding men and nearly had his hand severed.

Since then, he has bravely relearned how to play his instrument and according to Billy, is 'all chipper again'.

"The attack really made us appreciate each other and know when we have a good thing," he adds.

Redtrack's next gig will be at Chinnerys, Southend, where they will take to the stage with Good Shoes.

Tickets for the gig, on Tuesday, April 20, cost £8 - to book, visit www.chinnerys.co.uk

Hot foot it for must-have heels

By Lisa Haynes

THROW the chunky boots and thick socks to the back of the shoe cupboard. It's that time of year when your feet have no place to hide and pedicures are top of the to-do list.

Spring has arrived and the best place to start on revamping your wardrobe is feet first.

CLOG CAPERS

WHATEVER your holiday destination, make sure you're going Dutch with your footwear.

Love them or loathe them, clogs are 'the' trend-led shoe of the summer. Alexa Chung has rarely been spotted without her chunky clogs since being snapped in the must-have heels for the March cover of Vogue.

Thank Chanel for the seventies reincarnation of the wooden sole mules - the fashion house sent models clip-clopping down the runway in every style imaginable, including ornate designs embellished with poppies and corsage clusters.

Opt for traditional mule-styles or try sling-backs for added support.

Try: Office Justa Lotta Love wooden clogs, £60; Next grey stud slingback clogs, £45; F&F at Tesco Signature studded clogs, £28.

BROGUE BRIGADE

IF you're bored of ballet pumps, brogues are this season's alternative if you love stomping around in flats.

Models lost a few inches off their lofty heights on the catwalks at Paul Smith, Alberta Ferretti and Michael Kors, swapping the customary six-inch platforms for brogues with barely-there heels.

The boyish brogue has become a firm favourite with celebrities, spotted on the likes of flat converts, Sienna Miller, Agyness Deyn and Emma Watson.

Go for vintage-look black, brown or cream styles, or liven up your look with a vibrant splash of colour. Brogues will instantly give your outfit a super-cool preppy vibe.

have finally answered your prayers...

Stilettos are still around but the new mid-height heel, or 'halfway heel', is giving them a run for their money in the comfort stakes.

Perfect for taking you from day to night, these practical styles have a chunky, cone-shaped heel that will give you that elusive extra few inches without the "ouch" factor. Try: Bronx Swell heels, £90; Faith Sissey studded cone heels, £75 (in stores April); New Look cross strap lace-up heels, £12.

PEEP SHOW

BOOTIE aficionados need not have a panic attack about giving up their favourite footwear staple now winter's over and out.

Ankle boots have undergone a summer makeover with softer fabrics and peep-toes - a fashionable form of ventilation for when temperatures rise!

Go for spring-like fabrics such as canvas, suede and slouchy leather in neutral hues.

Best worn with bare legs, the peep-toe bootie is ideal for those who hate flashing their feet but don't forget those all-important manicured toenails.

Try: Russell & Bromley Boho peep toe lace-up boots, £245; ASOS Suede star punch peep toe ankle boots, £55; Dorothy Perkins peep toe buckle ankle boots, £25.

WEDGE WONDERS

WEDGES have been bubbling on the fashion back burner for years but this season they're hot, hot, hot in sandal and bootie styles.

Winning brownie points for their versatility you'll find traditional strappy numbers for high summer, or less foot exposing options with cut-outs or open-toes for transitional spring-time. Wedges are another means of raising your height without the agony. Add extra leg lengthening potential by opting for a platform sole.

Try: Office Wait and See orange wedges, £60; La Redoute gold strappy wedges, £25; Moda in Pelle Pinni stud wedges, £70.

Dragon tale goes to new heights

How To Train Your Dragon (PG) DREAMWORKS' How To Train Your Dragon has invention and emotion in abundance, and will delight audiences of all ages with its lush visuals and smart script telling the story of a young Viking, Hiccup (voiced by Jay Baruchel), who aspires to hunt dragons but ends up becoming friends with one of the supposedly fearsome animals. The bond makes Hiccup question everything he has ever been told about dragons. ★★★★

Kick-Ass (15)
BEING a superhero is a dangerous business in Matthew Vaughn's brutal coming of age tale, based on the comic written by Mark Millar and John S Romita Jr.

An unnoticed high school student (Aaron Johnson) surprises his comic-book obsessed friends by appearing one day with a new wetsuit and declaring that he is going to be a superhero. Kick-Ass is a thrilling, hilarious and at times heartbreaking portrait of teen angst. ★★★★

Nanny McPhee & The Big Bang (U)
THIS sequel to 2005's original Nanny McPhee introduces the mysterious nanny to a family in crisis in wartime Britain.

Nanny McPhee & The Big Bang once again demonstrates Emma Thompson's magical touch as McPhee. The nanny lends a hand when trouble brews after a group of city kids come to stay on a farm and fall out with the local children. ★★★★

The Blind Side (12A)
BASED on the book The Blind Side: Evolution Of A Game, Sandra Bullock delivers an eye-catching turn as crusading southern mom Leigh Anne Touhy in Memphis, Tennessee.

Driving home one night, Leigh spots Michael Oher (Quinton Aaron) wandering along the road and offers the homeless, black teenager a room. The matriarch encourages the lad to improve his grades and chase the possibility of an American football scholarship. ★★★

Perrier's Bounty (15)
FOUL-mouthed and gleefully violent, Perrier's Bounty is an edgy black comedy about one man's turbulent journey through the lawless streets of Dublin.

Michael McRea (Cillian Murphy) owes a considerable amount of money to kingpin Darren Perrier (Brendan Gleeson), who calls in the debt, giving Michael less than a day to come up with the cash or pay with his legs. ★★★★

I Love You Phillip Morris (15)
BASED on an incredible true story, I Love You Phillip Morris charts the improbable romance of two prison inmates and their subsequent journey of self-discovery on both sides of the bars.

Police officer Stephen Russell (Jim Carrey) is sentenced to time in prison, when he meets Phillip Morris (Ewan McGregor). The attraction is instant and once the pair embark on life outside prison, they struggle to stay on the straight and narrow. ★★★★

Go VIP at Tandoori Parlour

THE largest Indian restaurant in Essex has it all, from 'all you can eat' buffets to disco nights – and a free VIP card for its regulars.

While other restaurants charge for their loyalty cards, Tandoori Parlour, at 61-63 Hart Road, Thundersley, gives away its VIP cards for nothing.

The card allows customers to benefit from a range of deals including two for one dining from Sunday to Friday and £3 off the popular buffet evenings from Monday to Friday.

VIP diners can also receive special discounts on the takeaway menu.

Tandoori Parlour is the perfect place for everything from a quiet meal, to a big celebratory event.

The well-established restaurant regularly features in the Good Curry Guide and is a great place to go with all the family – especially on its 'eat and drink as much as you like' evenings, from 5.30pm to 10.30pm, every Tuesday.

The deal allows diners to eat as much as they like for just £15.95 per person, with a silver served starter, and enjoy two hours' drinking time per table from an extensive list.

The drinks on offer include draught Carlsberg, Boddington and Strongbow, wine by the glass (red, white or rosé), and a wide range of soft drinks and juices.

Tandoori Parlour's 'eat as much as you like' buffet, on Sundays from 12noon until 5pm, is also a great time to visit with the family, as children aged 10 and under eat for free.

Its Banquet and Disco evenings, on Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays, also give diners the choice of enjoying a meal from its extensive buffet or vast menu, before dancing the night away with its resident DJ.

Staff are happy to help organise fundraising events, with either a free disco or karaoke, and will give 50 per cent of the ticket prices to the charity of your choice.

Tandoori Parlour, which can seat more than 400 people, was one of the first Indian restaurants to win the Tiffin Cup in 2005.

It has outstanding facilities including a Crystal Room, which is free to hire for parties and functions and includes a free DJ and disco or karaoke, as well as a cocktail bar, dancefloor and stage area.

The restaurant, which is fully air conditioned and licensed and also offers a takeaway service, has full disabled facilities and a free large car park opposite.

Tandoori Parlour is open from noon to 2.30pm and 5.30pm to midnight from Monday to Saturday (last admission 10.30pm), and from noon to midnight (last admission 10.30pm) on Sunday.

For further information or to make a reservation call Tandoori Parlour on 01268 793786 or 01268 793877.

As with our lettings, we will be covering a huge area from SHOEBURYNESS in the East, thru THORPE BAY, SOUTHEND, WESTCLIFF, LEIGH, HADLEIGH, ROCHFORD, RAYLEIGH, HOCKLEY AND BENFLEET in the West.

Carl Hooper, will be our Sales Manager for the new department, and will be ready and waiting for those calls, with some interesting offers for the first few enquiries we receive.

We know how difficult it is to sell property in this extremely volatile financial climate, but we can assure you, you will receive the same total commitment from the Sales team at OCEAN RESIDENTIAL that our Landlords are already used to.

We are looking forward to building new relationships with our potential clients, whether it be for Sales or Lettings. We know clients expect to be dealt with in an efficient and professional manner, at OCEAN RESIDENTIAL that's exactly what you'll get 'time after time'.

Our official launch day will be 29th March, please call us now, we know you won't be disappointed.

ASK THE AGENT

ALAN KIRKMAN

Q. I'm confused. Is the new £250,000 Stamp Duty threshold good news?

A. That rather depends. Unlike the previous Stamp Duty holiday, for example, which came to an end last December and which temporarily applied to all purchases up to £175,000, this one is specifically designed to benefit first time buyers only.

So, while it will do little or nothing for the housing market as a whole, it is certainly good news for first time buyers, since it could save them as much as £2,500. Everyone else, meanwhile, will remain liable to pay Stamp Duty at the usual rate, which basically means 1% of the value on properties priced between £125,001 and £250,000.

However, as you might expect, things aren't quite that simple. Why? Well, because everything hinges on whether you fit Alistair Darling's strict new definition of a first time buyer. To be eligible, you must be someone who has never, ever possessed a freehold or leasehold interest in any residential property – either in the UK or anywhere else. So, if you inherited your current home, rather than buying it...you don't qualify. If you used to own a property but sold up years ago to work abroad...ditto. Divorcees who once co-owned the marital home but are now buying on their own need not apply. Likewise anyone who has moved to Britain after owning their own home abroad.

Nor does it stop there. If two or more people are buying jointly, then both or all of them have to fit this new definition in order to qualify. So, if you have never owned a property before, but your partner has...then tough luck.

How will HM Revenue and Customs know if you're a genuine first time buyer? Basically, you'll have to sign a formal declaration to that effect. And if that sounds like it's worth taking the risk, just remember that the authorities can check up on you for the next 6 years!

The new threshold also only applies if you are buying a property for your own personal use – so, all buy-to-let purchases are explicitly excluded, as are those made on behalf of someone else.

Association of Residential Letting Agents

TONY LINDBERG is director of Martin & Co (Southend) – part of the UK's LARGEST NETWORK OF LETTING AGENTS, with over 120 branches across the UK.

Ask The letting Agent Tony Lindberg

ARE YOU A LANDLORD SOME FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: Why use a letting agent?

A: There are a number of reasons, these include:

- Legislation – you can be secure in the knowledge that the correct and most up to date tenancy agreement is being used. A security deposit is held in accordance with the latest legislation.
- Income – an agent can ensure you secure the right rental price for your property.
- Marketing – the property can be marketed extensively (using different promotional methods)
- Peace of mind – most tenants these days feel more secure when dealing with an agent.

Q: How will I be able to ensure I get a quality tenant for my property?

A: A good agent will fully reference the applicant. This will include a credit reference whereby salary details with past and present employers are checked, previous landlords or agents are also contacted to check that historically they have been a good tenant (as this is often the best indicator of how a tenant will be in the future.)

Q: Do we have a say as to who we have as a tenant?

A: Yes, a good agent will always try to meet your requirements. Potential landlords are asked for their preferences – e.g. whether or not they will be happy with pets, smokers, sharers and/or students and endeavor to match as closely possible the tenant to the specified landlord requirements.

Q: What are my legal obligations?

A: One of the most important obligations relates maintenance and of course the safety of the gas supply and appliances at your property. If there are gas appliances at the property, it is a legal requirement to have an annual gas safety check (and this should be renewed on an annual basis). A current certificate must be provided before a tenant moves in.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.

To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', '(T)' etc. in the advertisement.

3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

(a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
(b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
(c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.

4. The Publisher will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.

(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.

14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect for an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.

15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.

16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.

17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.

18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers

Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A Box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies.

Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Exciting venture maintains Fairfield's high standards

FAIRFIELD Select Specialist Cars has been formed as a Re Marketing centre for Fairfield BMW and Mini main dealer.

We have found since beginning trading as a main dealer in 1973 a lot of the standards customers look for in their BMW and Mini purchases are similar to the standards they maintain on their part Exchange Vehicles.

In this exiting new venture, we have selected the very best of these Part Exchange Vehicles to form the majority of our stock and put them through our BMW workshop for a comprehensive Used Vehicle check.

All or our vehicles will be sold with a minimum of six months warranty included in the selling price. The warranty will either be the balance of the manufacturers or a six month AA warranty.

We are always looking to supplement our Used Vehicle stock with vehicles with Full Service History and up to 60,000 miles and up to eight years old.

Whether you are looking to Part Exchange your vehicle elsewhere or simply looking for a no obligation valuation please call us on 01702 42011

We believe in offering the same premium experience at Fairfield

BMW and Fairfield Select with the same sales team available to advise on vehicles and finance products.

Situated on the Westbound A127 at Leigh-on-Sea we are open seven days a week, Monday - Friday 9am to 6pm, Saturday 9am to 5pm and Sunday 10am to 4pm.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.
2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.
3. To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', ('T') etc. in the advertisement.
4. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:
 - (a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
 - (b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
 - (c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.
5. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.
6. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.
7. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.
8. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.
9. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.
10. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.
11. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.
12. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.
13. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.
14. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.
- (1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.
- (2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.
15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.
16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.
17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.
18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers

Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A Box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies.

Box numbers alone are not available for use in "trade" advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Box Travel Category

All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection

The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.

Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tidwell Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

End of the road
for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle.
That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD).
A CoD proves that the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and so is no longer your responsibility. www.direct.gov.uk/motoring

Killworth saddles up for an Easter return

Motor Sport

A SOUTHERN motorcycle racing team are all set for their first races over the Easter weekend.

BK Triumph Racing Team will be competing at Mallory Park in Leicestershire in the first round of the British Historic Racing (BHR) season.

Seven time BHR champion Stacey Killworth will return to defend his Pre 1972 unlimited championship on his Triumph T110.

The 33-year-old will also be competing in the Pre 1962 championship, which he also claimed last season, along with Greg Smith, 33, and younger brother Nick, 31, who will be making his first foray into motorcycle racing.

Stacey has managed to get another new Triumph over the winter, meaning Greg will use Stacey's Triumph from last year and Nick will use the machine Greg used in the Pre 1962 championship.

Stacey said: "I'm hoping for an action replay to last season and defend my titles. The competition is stiffer in the Pre 1972 class, especially as other riders push the boundaries with their bikes."

"The Triumphs are road based bikes and we're coming up against Grand Prix bikes."

"I'm hoping the Easter weekend will stay dry. I'm also hoping to get a new bike through the season which I hope will be a step forward so we're keeping our fingers crossed that we all have a good season."

If you would like to sponsor the BK Triumph Racing Team, call Stacey on 07804 225197.

RETURNING: Stacey Killworth will be back on track to defend his title he won last year.

Agony as 10-man Blues beaten by late own goal

Southend United

LADY Luck turned against Southend United again on Saturday as the 10-man Blues went down 4-3 at Bristol Rovers to an injury time own goal.

After ending their winless streak on Tuesday night, the Shrimpers came flying out the blocks at Memorial Stadium and took a two-goal lead.

Scott Vernon was brought down in the box by Mikkel Anderson after just five minutes and converted from the penalty spot.

And soon after, Scott Spencer lashed the ball beyond Anderson from a tight angle after chasing onto a long-ball into the box.

Southend had a further couple of chances, but those amounting to nothing. Rovers began to get themselves into the game.

Pat Baldwin gave them a helping hand, dallying on the ball at the back and allowing Jo Kuffour to steal possession and loop the ball over Steve Mildenhall on 34 minutes.

And the home side were level before half time when Simon Francis tripped Chris Lines in the box and Jeff Hughes tucked the resulting penalty beyond Mildenhall's reach.

Rovers then took the lead in a topsy-turvy match seven minutes after the restart when Hughes forced into the box down the left flank and fired into the net.

Southend, to their credit, battled back with chances for Alan McCormack and Franck Moussa before Vernon levelled with his second of the game on 57 minutes.

There was still more drama to come, however, and when Moussa and Byron Anthony battled for the ball on the touchline, the Southend youngster foolishly kicked out and was shown a straight red.

Frustrating for manager Steve Tilson, but worse was to come as in the 94th minute, Stuart Campbell drilled a cross into the box and the ball went in off Anthony Grant with no time for the Blues to reply.

Tilson said: "We deserved a lot more than we got. To lose in the last minute was a massive blow for myself and especially the players as they gave everything today."

Southend are two points from safety, but know a win could potentially lift them as high as 17th in the table.

They will hope to pick up that win when Yeovil come to Roots Hall on Saturday.

Crow's hat-trick sinks Grays, while City stay second

Non-League Football

GRAYS Athletic suffered another defeat on Saturday, going down 3-0 at Cambridge United.

Danny Crow opened the scoring just before the half-hour mark and then added his second on 36 minutes, before completing his hat-trick midway through the second half.

Chelmsford City kept themselves in second place in Blue Square South with a 1-0 win over Hampton & Richmond.

Dave Rainford scored the only goal of the game from the penalty spot in dramatic fashion on 95 minutes.

Thurrock missed out on the chance to close in on the play off spots after being held to a 0-0 draw at Weymouth, while the teams either side of them – Welling and Bath City – both lost.

Billerica Town have sacked manager Brian Statham following the side's 1-1 draw with Cray Wanderers in the Ryman Premier League on Saturday. Reserve team boss John Mifsud will take over for the remainder of the season. Town are four points off the drop zone.

Aveley were on the wrong end of a seven-goal thriller at home to Kingstonian, going down 4-3.

Canvey Island drew 2-2 at Bognor Regis Town, while AFC Hornchurch picked up a 3-2 victory at Tooting & Mitcham United.

East Thurrock United had the chance to move into third place in Ryman League Division One North when they travelled to Redbridge.

But with the home side in their own fight to avoid relegation, they proved a tough prospect and The Rocks went down 1-0. It was also a bad day for Great Wakering Rovers, who lost 1-0 at Cheshunt.

Lowly Leyton lost 1-0 at home to Heybridge Swifts, while Ilford were beaten 3-1 by Lowestoft Town.

There were some wins for local sides, though, with Romford beating Northwood 2-1 and Tilbury seeing off Enfield Town 1-0.

Southend lose by point but Barking win again

SOUTHERN suffered a frustrating defeat by just a point against Ealing in National Two South on Saturday.

The home side controlled much of the first half against an Ealing team currently in third place in the table.

Sid Hoult scored and converted the first try and then converted a second after Chris Vaughan touched down. Ealing got their own try against the run of play, but Phil Ellis and Hoult's boot restored the advantage at 21-7.

A penalty try right at the end of the first half brought the visitors back into it and they came into the game more after the break.

At 27-25, Southend looked to have done enough to win the game, but Morgan Thompson's drop goal four minutes from time switched the result the other way.

Barking remain eight points clear at the top of the table after another comprehensive win, this time beating Barnes 45-17 away.

Fourth-placed Chingford were on the end of a real drubbing in London One North, getting thumped 85-0 by leaders Staines. Woodford and Brentwood did not fair much better, losing 70-0 and 38-0 to Bury St Edmunds and Civil Service respectively.

Westcliff keep up the chase after beating Stevenage Town 30-10, while Rochford Hundred beat Ruislip 37-25 and Eton Manor won 41-29 at Harpenden.

Thurrock stretched out their lead at the top of London Two North East with a 57-3 win over Harlow. Second placed Sudbury won a high-scoring encounter against Romford & Gidea Park 39-26. There was also a win for Chelmsford, seeing off Norwich 12-8.

With first and third placed Beccles and Wisbech drawing 17-each, Canvey Island took closed the gap at the top of London Three North East with a 40-9 win over Upminster.

South Woodham Ferrers beat struggling Dagenham 48-12, while bottom-placed Billericay lost 20-8 at West Norfolk. Basildon beat Lowestoft & Yarmouth 59-17, while Wanstead went down 50-6 at Wymondham.

West Ham United

Irons lose to Stoke

WEST Ham crashed to another disappointing defeat that has left manager Gianfranco Zola pondering his future at the club.

Already under pressure from their poor league position and a defeat to relegation rivals Wolves earlier in the week, Zola and his players were criticised by chairman David Sullivan in an open letter to the club's supporters.

With that ringing in their ears, the Irons entertained a tough Stoke side sat comfortably in mid-table.

In truth, there was little to choose between the two sides. Egyptian Mido missed the best chance for the home side when he fluffed his shot from seven yards after Thomas Sorensen had saved from Carlton Cole.

Despite bringing in some advertising hoardings closer to the pitch, the threat of Rory Delap's long throw remained, but the Hammers were equal to it.

Zola said: "It is very painful and I would have to think a lot about how the situation stands. I need to find out what is the problem – and if the problem is me."

The Italian later stated his intention to remain as manager of the Hammers.
